What is the National Redress Scheme?

The National Redress Scheme helps people who experienced child sexual abuse in an organisation or institution.

This could include places like:

- Schools
- Churches
- Foster care
- Children's homes
- Missions
- Sports clubs
- Juvenile corrections
- + more.

What you can receive ??

If your application is accepted, you may receive:

- A payment
- A personal apology from the organisation
- Access to counselling and support

How we can help

We provide free and confidential support.

We can help you to:

- Understand the Redress Scheme
- Decide if you want to apply
- Complete the application
- Access counselling and emotional support

We can support you before, during or after your application.

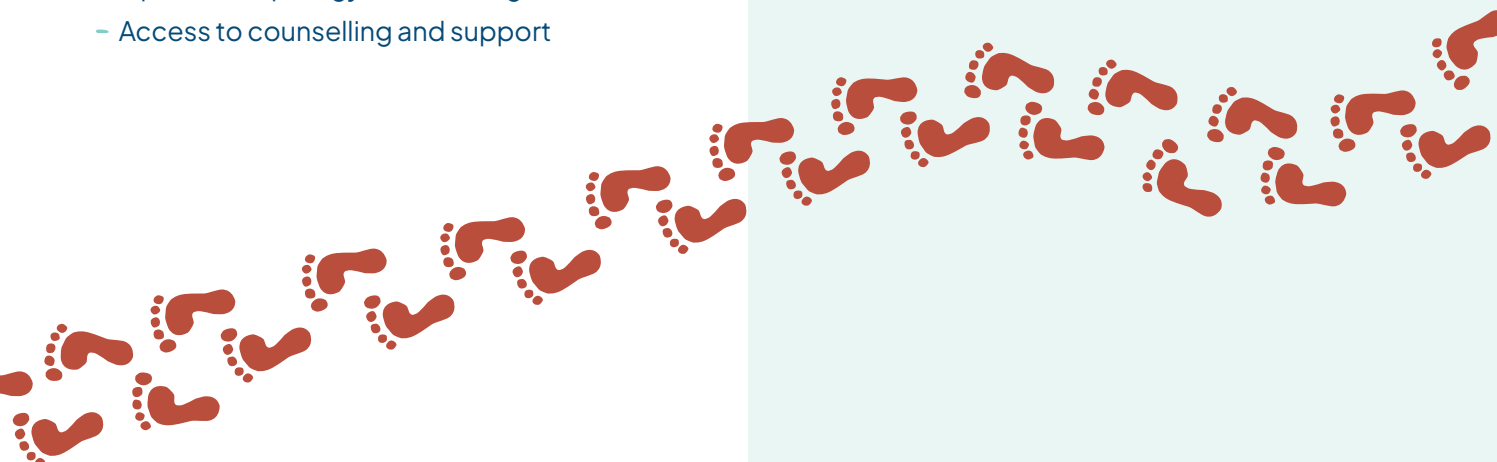

Who can apply?

You may be able to apply if:

- You were under 18 when the sexual abuse happened
- The abuse happened before 1 July 2018
- An organisation was responsible

If you're unsure, we can talk it through with you.
